CIVIL ENGINEERING
DEPARTMENT

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, SILCHAR

14-15 May, 2017

About the Institute

National Institute of Technology was established in 1967 as a Regional Engineering College in Assam. In 2002, it was upgraded to the status of National Institute of Technology and was declared as an Institute of National Importance. At present the institute has eleven (11) departments covering all the major branches of engineering, science, management and humanities disciplines offering B.Tech, M.Tech, MSc, MBA and PhD programs in various fields of specialization. The mission of the Institute is "to train and transform young men and women into responsible thinking engineers, technologists and scientists, to motivate them to attain professional excellence and to inspire them to proactively engage themselves for the betterment of the society".

About the Department

The Department of Civil Engineering started its journey in 1977. Ever since the inception, it has been imparting quality education to under graduate students. The Department presently fosters five PG courses. A good number of research scholars are carrying out research in various fields. There are about a dozen laboratories with various research and testing facilities. The faculty consists of eminent specialists from diverse fields and there is commendable research ambience in the Department.

Civil Engineering Department of the institute has produced many renowned technocrats who are serving our country as well as other countries. All the faculties are involved with various types consultancy, research and development works along with administrative activities of the institute. The Department has been involved with many research projects and produced excellent outcomes.

About the Conference

The aim of the Conference is to provide a platform for Researchers, Engineers, Academicians and Industry Professionals to present their recent research work and to explore future trends in various problems of Geotechnical Engineering. The Conference will be focused on the frontier topics of Geotechnical Engineering and will have several subthemes.

Conference subthemes:

1. Geophysical investigations
2. Ground improvement techniques
3. Soil Dynamics
4. Geotechnical Earthquake Engineering
5. Numerical modelling
6. Application of soft computing techniques in Geotechnical Engineering

About Silchar

Silchar is the second largest town in the state of Assam. It was the kingdom of the Kachchhari kings from 1755 to 1830. It was annexed to the British East India Company in 1833. The city has now attained a cosmopolitan status with inhabitants from all over India although Bengali speaking people constitute the majority. It is an educational and business hub in North East India next to Guwahati.

Aesthetically the campus is very beautiful with greeneries and wet lands. The weather is also very pleasant. The average temperature in the month of May will be around $20^{\circ}\text{C} - 35^{\circ}\text{C}$.

How to Reach

The city is well connected by Road, Train and Air. There are direct flights from Kolkata and Guwahati and trains from New Delhi, Kolkata, Guwahati and Agartala. Daily bus services are available from Agartala, Guwahati, Aizawl and Imphal. The Institute is located around 35 kms from the Silchar airport, 10 kms from the Silchar railway station, 14 kms from ISBT Silchar and 8 kms from the heart of the Silchar town. Pre-paid taxi and auto services are available from Silchar.
